

The Anker Research Institute – Living Wage and Income Corporate Sponsors

Anker Research Institute Corporate Sponsors help ensure a sustainable future for Living Wage and Living Income studies and estimates used around the world by researchers and companies alike.

Each year more and more companies adopt higher ethical standards in their supply chains and consumers demand better working conditions for all workers. The conversation about living wages has never been more relevant.

Living Wage and Income Corporate Sponsors make it possible for the Anker Research Institute to continue providing its groundbreaking research on living wages and sustainable livelihoods as a public good to improve the living standards of workers and their families to a decent level throughout global supply chains.

In appreciation for their support, Corporate Sponsors receive

Recognition of impact

Become a key supporter of living wage research

First-look webinars

Insights into new frontiers in living wage and income research

Group discussion sessions

Exclusive conversations with living wage researchers

Corporate Sponsors make a minimum annual donation based on their revenue

Annual revenue in USD	Annual Donation
<$100 million	$2,000
$100 million+	$5,000

Is your company interested in becoming a Corporate Sponsor?

Contact us for more information: inquiries@ankerinstitute.org

About The Anker Research Institute

The Anker Research Institute consists of researchers and research institutions from around the world with the goal of generating knowledge to improve the living standards of working people and their families to a decent level throughout global supply chains. The Anker Research Institute is led by Richard Anker and Martha Anker, and is currently hosted by Social Accountability International (SAI) in New York, NY, USA. The Anker Research Institute is a founding partner in the Global Living Wage Coalition (GLWC).